Purpose

No matter what level of our education achievement, no matter what career or job we may take up, no matter how rich or poor we may be and no matter how healthy we may be, we all live and interact in a community.

How do you contribute to the wider community. Is it through activities such as sport & recreation, caring for another member of the family, & part time work. Are you involved in youth work, church or youth forums, or in some form of community service. Do you understand the value of being an active citizen and the social and economic benefits you can bring to the wider community.

Use this journal to record and report on your experience of, and thoughts about Community Service.
